[IMDb] [^3] . The pair of lovers in this music-drama, who form the lead pair, are a young musician and a young woman from different socio-economic backgrounds. The musician has been shunned by his parents, who treat him like a living relic, and the girl has been abandoned by her father, who is not allowed to see her by the social norms of the area. With his courage and confidence built on years of training as a music teacher, he wins the heart of the young girl by his pure love and music. The girl is the daughter of a rich businessman, who leaves home to go to an educational institute. As the youth becomes friends with her, she reveals the fact that she is pregnant, and that her father has refused to let her return home. However, her father comes to realize the truth about his daughter's love for the young musician. In spite of initial opposition, the parents eventually agree to their daughter's marriage with the young man. They both finally reunite, and the film ends with them, and their daughter's new son, leaving the city, to start a new life.
